No. 21.

LATE NEWS.

JOAQUIN MILLER'S SON.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—Harry Miller, son of Joaquin Miller (Poet of the Sierras), was sentenced to two years imprisonment to-day for holding up the stage in Mendocino county some weeks ago.

SHERMAN ELECTED.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 7.—The Republicans of Ohio have spoken, and John Sherman is to be next United States senator from the Buckeye state. J. B. Foraker was defeated, but then in defeat his magnificent leadership excites but the admiration of his opponents, and he is to-night, more than ever, the idol of the dauntless young Republicans who have given him such noble allegiance.

GLOVE CONTEST.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 7.—Capt. S. Williams, on the contest committee of the Olympic club, left here last night for New York via Chicago, with instructions to offer a purse of $12,000 for a glove contest to a finish between Corbett and Maher; Slavin and Corbett, Maher and Slavin or Choyinski and either of the above named men before the Olympic club early in March.

GEORGIA CYCLONE.

ATLANTA, Jan. 7.—At 6 o'clock last evening a black, funnel-shaped cloud, fringed with electric fire, in the center of which was a roaring, seething mass, struck Fayetteville, and dwellings, churches and public buildings were swept away and several persons killed.

The works of the Atlanta Glass company burned last night. Loss, $60,000; insurance, $40,000.

AFTER GARZA.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 7.—The train of pack mules and scouts for service against Garza have arrived here from Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming. It consists of thirty-one mules and six experienced frontier guides in charge of Henry Darley, who has seen much service against the Indians. They will leave on a special to-morrow morning for Fort McIntosh.

COUNTY TREASURER SHORT.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 7.—A special from Hastings, Neb., says: It was discovered to-day that County Treasurer Paul was short in his accounts to the amount of $53,000. The board of supervisors held a meeting to-day and Paul's bondsmen offered to settle the matter by paying $10,000 in cash and giving notes for $22,000. The proposition has not been accepted, but is being considered, and a decision will be reached to-morrow.

ARRESTED.

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 7.—Frank Perry, one of the men implicated in defrauding the pool room of Austin & Co. yesterday by means of bogus returns of the races at Guttenberg, was arrested here to-day. He had not attempted to leave the town and took his arrest very coolly, apparently believing that the law can not touch him for his act. Only a few dollars were found on him at the time of his arrest. He would neither admit nor deny that he was guilty of the crime, and would say nothing as to his partner, Rogers. The latter has not been found yet and is supposed to have left town.

DR. GRAVES.

DENVER, Jan. 7.—Dr. Graves was not interviewed to-day, but this was not the fault of the newspaper men. The order of the district attorney prohibits any one but the doctor's personal friends and his attorney from visiting him. Mrs. Graves had a severe relapse to-day, and raves wildly at times. To-morrow Judge Furin makes a motion in the state supreme court for a new trial for the doctor, but it is not thought that it will be granted. In case it is not,

Dr. Graves will be sentenced on Saturday and taken to the penitentiary at Canon City on Monday next, where he will await the results of an appeal to the United States supreme court in his case.

THE KANSAS WAR.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 7.—A special to the Journal from Arkalon, Kas., says: Forty as determined and desperate men as can be found on the border, and armed to the teeth, barricaded behind the wall of the court house at Springfield, and forty soldiers as determined to dislodge them and bring them to justice, is the situation here to-night. A number more soldiers guarding three of the murderous mob, arrested to-day, under orders to shoot them, surrendered to their companions in crime, who will probably endeavor to release them before the day dawns. More soldiers still guarding the house of Judge Botkin from the attack of enemies bent upon taking his life—such is the situation to-night at the scene of the atrocious killing of Sheriff Dunn yesterday. At 2:45 o'clock this afternoon Adjutant General Roberts reached here with seventy-five troops under the immediate command of Colonel Ricksecker, of Sterling. The company was formed of part of company E, of Hutchison, and H of Sterling, of the Kansas national guards, and met General Roberts at the former place this morning. The intention of General Roberts is to assist the only constituted authorities in the execution of the law. He is not here, he says, to take anybody's part on any side. At Mineola word was received that the Wooddale people had taken possession of the court house at Springfield, and that Judge Botkin was at Arkalon awaiting for reinforcements to help him open court. At Mead it was found that Botkin had asked that town for help, chiefly in the way of arms. It will be remembered that his first telegram to the governor was not for troops but for arms. He seems to think that there are men enough here, but that they are not sufficiently equipped for the emergency.

It has been said that men of genius seldom receive credit due them until they are in the grave. This is certainly the case with the late Prof. Von Myerhoff, at one time engaged in teaching music at Socorro, but who subsequently resided at Albuquerque, New Mexico, where he died some twelve months ago. Prof. Von Myerhoff was a cultured gentleman, erratic perhaps and to some extent eccentric, as are all men of more than ordinary talent. We are prompted to refer to the professor from the fact that quite recently this office has received a letter from the east in which the writer offers $1,000 for a manuscript copy of an unpublished composition from the pen of our late friend, that was dedicated to the editor of this paper, and was named the "Miner's March." It was a gem of its kind, but unfortunately for posterity and the lovers of music, the copy was lost. Had the professor lived it was his intention of making El Paso his home.—Bullion.

If you want to buy a nice eight roomed, two-story house, with bath room, hot and cold water, good stable, fine fruit trees, part bearing, located on one of the best streets in East Las Vegas, very cheap and on favorable terms, call on Wise & Hogsett.

A gentleman informs us that he saw a horse race this morning. It took two cowboys seventeen days going fourteen miles. If he belonged to the "Ananias club" he would have told us, so we do not doubt the truth of his statement.

Green's lake is in good order for skating. He has it well lighted and is a pleasant place to go.

It is reported that some promiscuous shooting was done last night in the Old town.

RESOLUTIONS ON JUDGE HAZLEDINE'S DEATH.

The standing committee of the missionary jurisdiction of New Mexico and Arizona, convened on account of the death of the Hon. Wm. C. Hazledine, late one of their number, give expression to their sense of loss, both to themselves and to the church, in the following resolutions:

Resolved, That in the removal of Judge Hazledine from the sphere of the church militant to that of the church of rest, this committee loses a faithful and most valuable member, whose service covers a large period in its history, and whose place it will be very difficult to fill. An earnest, active, generous churchman—well-instructed, clear-headed, conscientious, thoroughly loyal, and always at the church's service in every sphere of her labors—Judge Hazledine will be greatly missed in every church relation, and the jurisdiction at large has cause to mourn the cessation of his activities equally with the mission of which he was for nearly eleven years the warden.

Resolved, That the foregoing be spread upon the records of this committee, that the copies be furnished to the principal newspapers of the jurisdiction, and that a duly authenticated copy be sent to the family of our deceased brother, with the assurance of our very deep sympathy in their great bereavement.

H. FORRESTER,
President.

A WET BLANKET.

It is already pretty definitely settled at Washington that Arizona will not reach the goal of her ambition at the present. A letter received in this city yesterday from a prominent gentleman in Washington announces that there is a determination by certain Democrats in congress to tack Oklahoma onto Arizona or keep her out, and furthermore, that the president is sure to veto an omnibus bill which would include Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma, etc. The fact is that this is the nominal situation, the apparent reason for holding the territory out. The reason lies in another direction.—Phoenix Herald.
